Now that I'm a Christian: What's Next? - Part 2

This week we began to examine the handout entitled "Now that I'm a Christian". We hope that you had an interesting and informative class discussion today. In order for us to continue to have productive sessions it will be important that you keep up with the reading assignments so that you can fully participate in our discussions. Although faith comes by hearing, Paul compels us in Galatians 6:6 with "Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things". Without everyone's class participation in the discussion we will never fully get all that we could get from each session because everyone has a part to play. For next week's discussion we would like you to finish reading this handout (pages 24-48) and answer the following questions below.

Review Questions for next week:

- 1) What is the difference between the Old Testament and the New Testament (Hint: Romans 15:4, Matthew 5:17-18, Luke 24, Ephesians 2, and Hebrews 9)?

- 2) What is does the word "Gospel" mean and why is it written four times in our New Testament?

3) Where is the history of the early church recorded at?

4) Which apostle wrote at least half of the New Testament and why (Hint: Acts 9, 1 Corinthians 15:1-10)?

5) What are the five parts of worship? List each and explain in your own words why we do them:

Part 1 –

Part 2 –

Part 3 –

Part 4 –

Part 5 –

6) The church is organized by offices, what are these three offices and what is their purpose? List each and explain in your own words:

7) What is the work of the church (Hint: Ephesians 3, Ephesians 4:11-13) and how do the above roles help to facilitate this work being done?

8) In your Christian Living, what are some qualities or traits that you should be striving to develop? Also give scripture if you can for those qualities?

Summarize the following five passages:

Matthew 4:1-4 _____

John 4:21-34 _____

Hebrews chapter 5 _____

Hebrews 6:1-6 _____

1 John 2:1-6, 12-14 _____

Note: There may be an adjustment to lessons that we will be using after our forth session. We are tentatively looking at some new material that possibly the entire church will go through at least once with the Basic Concepts class. When a final decision is made we will be sure to inform you, but for now please notice the following schedule:

Lesson Title	Themes	Tentative Session Date
